

POWER IN OUR PEOPLE

TEMPORARY STAFFING

We Recruit and Hire for Industrial Manufacturing and Office Administration

While we serve a variety of staffing needs across a range of industries, our team has extensive industrial manufacturing expertise. Our customized staffing solutions are shown to yield increases in retention and productivity, and decreases in turnover, absenteeism, time-to-fill and overtime costs.

We place experienced individuals in production, assembly, quality assurance, logistics, packing and warehouse positions. We'll work with you to develop a unique, adaptable staffing solution that can change as your business needs and fulfillment requirements fluctuate.

Our existing pool of talent, combined with the collective strength of our partners, helps ensure that we'll provide your business with only the best, most qualified applicants for your clerical and front-end positions.

Enjoy Time and Cost Savings with Candidate Screening

In addition to connecting you with highly qualified individuals for your temporary, contract or direct-hire positions, we'll handle the logistics that come along with new hires.

Our skilled recruiting and assessments teams take care of candidate screening, saving you valuable time and resources. We'll handle everything from interviews, skills testing and personality profiles to background, reference and drug screens.

We offer evaluation tools to properly assess candidates, taking the guesswork out of the hiring process. Our assessments include: foreign languages, software proficiency, AUTO CAD, accounting and bookkeeping, legal and paralegal matter, medical assisting and collections, and human resources basics and payroll.

Capitalize on Our Management Services

To reduce costs and maximize productivity, we take charge of not only the design and implementation of your staffing solutions, but also the management of these services, leaving you the time and money to focus on core, mission-critical business functions.

Trust MAU to design a staffing plan that works for your business, find and hire the most qualified individuals, and handle important administrative duties throughout your projects' lifecycle.

"When MAU acquired responsibility for our industrial temporary workforce, the resources were properly planned and prepared, which was ultimately validated in their cost, quality, and service to our end customers."
